ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Laura Farrington

Journals, Scrapbook and family tree information copied with permission from Cindy Rottger. She has gone the extra mile to make sure this information is available to many people. Also thanks to Kay Albright Brennen. She owns some of the journals and the scrapbook and it is great that she is willing to share with us! The DeKalb County Genealogy Society has made the copying of these journals possible by supplying paper and the copy machine to copy them in their entirety.

Roselyn Wells copied, cut, glued, compiled and indexed the books.

Laura's parents were John Farrington and Catherine Metzger. Her brothers were Dennis, Theron, Earl and Roscoe. Her family that she talks about consistently are Dr. Almond Farrington and his wife "Nell", Uncle Ben Farrington and his wife Sophia, 'Auscar" and Frank Vian and others. Make sure you look at first names and last names!

May 8th, Begun putting a cement block wall around Pa's lot in the cemetery. Dennis is doing the cementing. Ma, Dennis, Theron, Gertie, Carl and myself helped with the work in P.M. — Carl's and Dora Goodwin called on us at the cemetery in the evening.

May 9th, Ma & Dennis worked on lot in cemetery in A.M. Took Dennis to Auburn in P.M., from there went to Dennis' home to meet Ma, who took Denny's horse & wagon home.

Sun. May 11th, Gertie & I drove to church with Theron's horse. The church decided to remodel the church building. Bro. Mahin will begin a series of meetings at Corunna Tues. evening May 13th. Spent the P.M. reading and walking. — Ma took Aunt Lib and Anna to George Schweitzger's to see the baby.

1919.

Mon. May. 12th. Had indigestion:- Finished writing a church letter to Bro. Frank Vian and took it over; visited them and called on Dell Whittic in P.M. - There is a business meeting at Cedar Lake tonight to decide on time of remodeling church building. James Childs fixed our bell so we could ring it tonight.

Tues. May 13th. Took a walk to the woods and finished reading a book on missions in China. A man and boy were here to buy horses. Crochetted on bootees. Began writing a letter. Rain and colder this evening.

Wed. May 14th. Washed the dishes.- Took a walk in A.M.-Crochetted bootees.- Ma and Gertie visited at Gertie's folks and took Nora Schweitzer's carpet rags over to Susan's for the Aid Society tomorrow. Preacher Wests visited at George Schuster's.- Maud had a colt born dead.-Cool and cloudy today.

May 15th: Thurs. Attended Aid Society at Susan Seberts. Called at ~~May~~ Uncle Georges on the way home. Sylvia & Husband were there. Ma & Uncle G. planned to go to Mich. Sat.—Ma went to Uncle G.'s this evening. Mrs. Crawford was there. Took a boquette of Lilac's, purple & white to the society. There were about 24 present. An electric storm came up while there.
